FEDERAL WARRANTS NEEDED TO SEARCH HOMES FOR BOOZE

Federal warrants must be secured by federal officers who wish to conduct a search of private homes for liquor, according to a ruling by Judge William H. Sawtelle in the United States district court recently.

State warrants do not empower federal agents to make a search of private residences and evidence collected in such searches can not be used to prosecute individuals in a federal court under the ruling, which was made by Judge Sawtelle in dismissing five charges alleging violations of the liquor laws on the grounds that the evidence was secured in illegal raids.

All searches of homes by federal agents must be confined to searching for federal statutes, which provide that the said agents must be armed with federal search warrants, the court held.

The court also held, in dismissing one of the cases, that a lease has the same right to protection against illegal search of his home as the owner of property.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

From the Silver Belt of Sept. 11, 1885. Geronimo's band, number 25, consisting of 30 bucks, 13 quises and two boys, were taken from Fort Huachuca and sent to Fort Marion, Florida, on the 8th inst. Geronimo's brother and two bucks, three quises and a child, took each leave of the party, but were being guarded by soldiers. The new Arizona highway between Phoenix and Prescott, via Wickenburg and Congress Junction for the greater part of the distance, that far paralleling the Santa Fe railroad.

This route was selected only after been opposition from an element that preferred the Black Canyon line, through Humboldt, Mayer and Canon. Friends of this latter route still are active and it is proposed to provide means for smoothing off the rougher sections, both to attract tourist travel and to provide a road over which motor trucks may haul ore to the Humboldt smelter. Yavapai county is assisting and has ordered construction of a steel bridge across the Agua river at Canon, where the fording usually is difficult.

SCHEME TO DISCREET ATTY. GEN. DAUGHERTY FALLS FLAT

Representative Keller, republican, Minnesota, failed again to appear before the house judiciary committee to give evidence under oath as to the information on which he based his impeachment charges against Attorney General Daugherty.

Keller's counsel, Jackson H. Ralston, announced he had advised his client that the committee had exceeded its authority and that he was not required to appear in response to the committee summons.

Chairman Volstead said that the subpoena served on Mr. Keller had been signed by the speaker of the house and that in ordering the appearance of the Minnesota representative the committee had acted for the house. He added that the committee could now report Mr. Keller back to the house for contempt.

NORTH AND SOUTH ROUTE IS SELECTED

Rock gangs of the state highway department have been moved from the Apache Trail to the new shortcut along the Hasayampa canyon south of Wickenburg, where very heavy work will be done for about six miles, as far north as the Garden of Allah. Several miles have been completed southward from Wickenburg and about 350 men are employed in pushing the grade construction. The job is expected to take about five months. Completion will save about 14 miles and will eliminate a very rough, rocky section departing from the Castle Hot Springs road. The new line will be a section of the main Arizona highway between Phoenix and Prescott, via Wickenburg and Congress Junction for the greater part of the distance, that far paralleling the Santa Fe railroad.

This route was selected only after been opposition from an element that preferred the Black Canyon line, through Humboldt, Mayer and Canon. Friends of this latter route still are active and it is proposed to provide means for smoothing off the rougher sections, both to attract tourist travel and to provide a road over which motor trucks may haul ore to the Humboldt smelter. Yavapai county is assisting and has ordered construction of a steel bridge across the Agua river at Canon, where the fording usually is difficult.

LARGE CONSIGNMENT OF LIQUOR: FOUR MEN UNDER ARREST AT YUMA, ARIZ.

Four men, two automobiles and 200 gallons of liquor were brought into Yuma by Mike Cassidy, United States prohibition director for Arizona. Cassidy and his deputies arrested the four men at McGray's, a small station in northern Yuma county. The liquor, stored in five and ten gallon kegs, was hidden in the automobiles.

The men, who gave their names as Charles Lumsford, G. K. Collins, Jas. W. Bain and C. J. Iby, said they were on their way to Phoenix from Nevada, according to Cassidy.

The library will be open from 2:30 until 5 o'clock January 1. The rest of the day is a holiday.

Do you know that it is the business of the public library to lend books and answer questions?

Have is something for Flagstaff citizens to be proud of. A certain person who recently moved here from the neighboring city of Prescott, told the librarian that our library is superior to the one in Prescott in many ways. Even if we don't have a library building—yet—

Don't forget you may take magazines out of the library the same as books, or one along with your book. LUCINA DE VANEY, Librarian.

WEARS WAR COAT PUT AWAY IN '69

C. A. Warren, sole surviving member of the Grand Army of the Republic post at Brownsville, Minn., wore the same coat that he wore at the Battle of Gettysburg at a recent American Legion banquet in Minneapolis. The coat lay packed in tobacco leaves in a trunk from 1869 to 1907. The buddies of '17-'18 gave the Civil War veteran a rousing ovation at the dinner.

"The service men of the old country will praise the American Legion and bless your people, a people in the midst of whom was signed a sacred resolution by which those who united in brotherhood won in the war, have firmly resolved to win peace," Charles Bertrand, president of the Interallied Veterans' association, stated in a recent message to Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion. Mr. Bertrand, a member of the French Chamber of Deputies, recently returned to France after attending the conference of his organization at New Orleans.

Legislation for the relief of disabled ex-service men and to prevent unemployment was named by Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion, as first on the program of the ex-service men's organization. Commander Owsley will start the latter part of this month on a nation-wide tour of inspection in the interest of the Legion. Texas, California, Oregon and Washington will be among the first states visited.

Four aviators in two United States navy airplanes have returned to San Francisco following a flight of more than 7000 miles during which they advertised the 1923 national convention of the American Legion, to be held in San Francisco, in all parts of the country.

In the course of their journey the flyers stopped at Washington to see President Harding, who looked over their itinerary, and quickly remarked: "Why, you haven't got Marion, O, my home town, on here."

"All right, we'll put it on," J. W. Jackson, one of the aviators, said. So they put Marion on the list and stopped there Armistice Day.

ADVERTISING

The two Wrigley factories in Brooklyn and Chicago are turning out an average of 43,000,000 sticks of gum a day.

What built up this enormous business in a few years?

Answer: Advertising! Admittedly, Wrigley had to have a gum that pleased the public taste. But many other gum companies, with a satisfactory product, remain small because they haven't advertised on a big scale.

Philosopher Emerson was wrong. You may make a better mouse trap, but the world won't beat a path to your door unless you get your message to the world by advertising.

Advertising is the lantern that finds business in dark times.

Federated Church

Many expressed themselves freely to say that services Sunday morning were by far the best that had ever been held at Christmas. This secret is much prayer and preparation by choir, pastor and congregation. It was our earnest desire to make this Christmas message something to touch our hearts and be of a lasting nature. God answered prayer. The Christmas program in the evening was also of an outstanding nature. Many beautiful messages were given.

One of the finest events, inaugurated for the first time, led by Mr. and Mrs. Bellwood, was the caroling of the sick and shut-ins, after the program Sunday evening. Every person whose name was handed in was visited.

We are seeking to make the service of next Sunday morning even more powerful and effective. The launching out into the New Year should invoke deep and careful thought. Let us combine our efforts in prayer that God will send the force and beauty of the services by His holy presence.

We are very proud of our choir and they deserve our hearty support in every way. The Ladies' Guild will have their last meeting of the year on Thursday of this week. The big yearly meeting of the year will soon be held. The business of the year is drawing rapidly to a close. Any unpaid pledges either to the Federated church or Mexican mission should be paid immediately. The pastor is laying plans for quite a loaded program for next year and with the hearty co-operation of the church, the work of the Kingdom of God can be carried forward more effectively in this community.

We would appreciate the presence of every member of the church next Sunday. Let us pray and plan for a greater New Year.

All are welcome to all our services. W. H. ZOOK, Pastor.

THE MIDWINTER TERM

opens at the Lamsan Business College, 23 West Washington Street, Phoenix, Arizona, Tuesday, January 2, 1923.

During the year 1922 nearly three hundred students have been enrolled. But so great has been the demand for office help that this school was able to fill only about one-third of the positions offered to its students. The opening of the winter term in Arizona and the big wages paid will cause a much larger demand for office help in 1923. Those who begin to prepare themselves now will be ready for the best positions that will be open during the spring and summer. For full information, write.
